

Short Description

Nar Sur is a traditional folk musical instrument of Sindh, Pakistan, made primarily from natural reed (nar). It is played by local musicians to accompany folk songs, spiritual poetry, and cultural gatherings. The practice reflects indigenous craftsmanship and oral musical traditions passed down through generations. Nar Sur holds cultural significance as an expression of regional identity and heritage.